admission.

A Kings Landing Tour
Guide can lead your Little Historian Tour for an additional $109.25 per guide.

Children at Work and Play – Primary (Kindergarten, Grades 1 & 2)

This tour will help your students visualize how kids their own age would have lived over 200 years ago! While discussing chores, family, clothing and entertainment, your little historians will be comparing and contrasting what they are learning with their own lives. They will experience hands-on chores, old-fashioned games and a visit to our one-room schoolhouse.

Who Lives in Your Neighborhood? – Elementary (Grades 3, 4 & 5)

While travelling through Kings Landing, your students will have a chance to meet some costumed characters and discover what life was like for New Brunswick's early settlers. Don't be surprised if your group is asked to pitch in! Your students will constantly be commenting on the similarities and differences between the villagers lifestyle and their own.

Waste Not, Want Not – Middle School (Grades 6, 7 & 8)

On this visit to Kings Landing, your students will discover that recycling has been around for a really, really long time! By examining packaged goods, reusable "waste," shelf life and the availability of goods at the general store, your students will compare and contrast 19th century lifestyles with their own.

The King's Head Inn

History

The King's Head Inn represents traditions that date back 150 years to the days of the Loyalists who settled along the majestic Saint John River. Victorian inns were known for warm hospitality and hearty food. Your guests will be transported back to 1855, when Mr. Holyoke and his son Joseph first opened the inn on the road between Woodstock and Fredericton, New Brunswick. Your guests will enjoy the company of costumed servers as part of this unique and memorable dining experience.

Dining Options

Your guests can order from our heritage themed menu and choose from King's Landing favourites like Hunter's Delight or Ploughman's Lunch, which reflect the appetites of New Brunswick's first settlers. For the less adventurous, we also serve satisfying, modern fare like burgers, salads, sandwiches, etc.

Short on time? We offer a condensed group tour lunch menu for those who want to experience the King's Head Inn's hospitality but are on a tight schedule. Meals from this menu can be ordered in advance to reduce wait time upon arrival.

For only $16.50 (+gratuity & hst), your guests will have their choice of New Brunswick Salmon Chowder, Chef Salad, or Mrs. Long's Turkey Pot Pie. Your guests will also be served our famous homemade brown bread, dessert and coffee or tea. Make sure your guests bring a hearty appetite!
