

KINGS LANDING

Collections Centre Volunteer

Become a Volunteer in Kings Landing's Collections Centre

If you love visiting Kings Landing and admire the artefacts and historical objects in the Village and on display in the Welcome Centre, consider becoming a Collections Centre Volunteer! Kings Landing is home to over 90,000 artefacts that require documentation and care. Share your love for history by assisting our collections and exhibits team.

As a Collections Centre Volunteer, you will:

- Spend time among Kings Landing's vast artefact collection;
- Learn about New Brunswick's history;
- Interact with our staff and visitors who share your interests;
- Gain experience in a museum setting and collect volunteer hours;
- Receive free admission to Kings Landing; and,
- Receive an invitation to our Volunteer Appreciation Day at the end of the season.

If becoming a Collections Centre Volunteer interests you, please fill out and submit the form on the next page and return it via email to Info.KingsLanding@gnb.ca. We will review your application, and a member of our team will get back to you if interested.

What is Kings Landing?

There's no time like the present to discover the past! Kings Landing takes aim at how history is told and pushes the boundaries of open-air museums. Situated along the Saint John River, this 300-acre museum is home to over 90,000 artefacts and a 19th-century village full of costumed characters, farm animals and 70 historic buildings. Kings Landing also offers workshops, educational programs, children's summer camps, exhibits, and unique culinary experiences.

Kings Landing is open Wednesday - Sunday from 10 am – 5 pm from early June to mid-October and for special events throughout the year. Learn more about Kings Landing at kingslanding.nb.ca or on Facebook and Instagram @KingsLandingNB.
