

Kings Landing restricts the admission of animals to service animals only.

Smoking and vaping are only allowed in parking lots.

Please do not feed or pet the animals or put heads, hands or objects into enclosures.

Please do not sit, stand, climb or lean on fences or enter any enclosures.

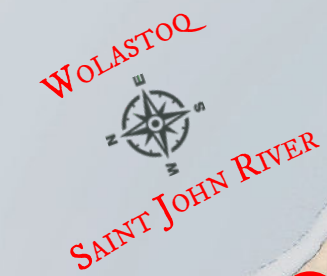

All animal programming is subject to the health and safety of our animals.

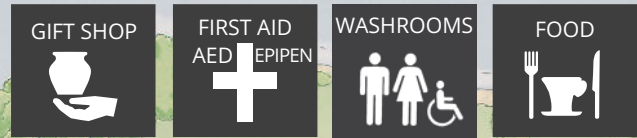

Horse & wagon rides operate on a first come, first served basis until 4:30 p.m. with breaks for lunch and to rest and feed the horses. Rides are not always guaranteed. Please remain seated. Roads may be bumpy, so please ride at your own risk.

Ground water is available to fill water bottles at the troughs located by the Grant Store and Lint Farm, and inside the Ingraham House. Please obtain water only from the spout; horses drink water from the troughs. Bottled water can be purchased at the Grant Store.

Did you know? The oldest buildings on site are the Joslin House (main section) and the Ingraham privy, both built in 1795.

Acknowledgment of First Peoples and Traditional Territory

The Kings Landing Corporation recognizes and respects that the land on which we gather is part of the traditional territory of the Wolastoqey.

The Kings Landing Corporation is thankful for the support of the Kings Landing Foundation, a dedicated group of volunteers raising funds to support the mission of Kings Landing.

Step into the decades throughout the village! Each building represents a different year.
