

Artist in Residence Program

Kings Landing's mission is to attract, engage, enrich and educate the people of New Brunswick and visitors by showcasing the well-researched adaptation of people who lived along the St. John River Valley in the 19th century.

Situated along the Wolastoq (Saint John River), this 300-acre living history museum is home to a recreated 19th-century village full of costumed characters, farm animals and 70 historic buildings. Kings Landing is home to nearly 90,000 artefacts and offers educational programs, children's summer camps, exhibits, and tasteful culinary experiences.

Join us in 2025 by being part of a unique inaugural venture. Our Artist in Residence program is an opportunity to encourage, support, promote and showcase artists in New Brunswick.

We encourage artists working in different media and at any stage in their career to apply. Kings Landing is committed to supporting diversity in our communities in which we live and serve. We encourage and support applications from Indigenous, persons with disabilities, and members of visible minority groups.

This residency will occur from September 5, 2025, until October 17, 2025. We will have three spaces available.
